Called to LEAD - Amazing Alumni

Zarina Berens graduated from St. Peter the Apostle Catholic School in 2013 after attending from 2nd to 8th grade. After graduating, Zarina went on to attend St. Joseph Academy for high school. There, she was involved both leadership and athletics, playing sports and being apart of ASB throughout her high school career. Zarina noted that through these times, she continued to serve her surround communities. After St. Joseph's, Zarina committed to California State University San Marcos where she is actively study to receive her Bachelor's degree in Business Marketing.

Zarina still carries the values instilled at St. Peter the Apostle Catholic School. She stated, "I was blessed to have gone through Catholic education first at St. Peters and then for high school as well. The education I received helped me to know, love, and serve God. It helped me to become a Catholic school teacher, which I absolutely love. Teaching brings me so much joy because I can help students on their path to heaven through Catholic education."

Zarina Berens advice to current students at St. Peters is, "live out your faith in every aspect of you life. Treat people around you with the love and mercy of Jesus and . My last piece of advice is to never take for granted the incredible education you are receiving. You are in a loving, faith-filled environment with teachers and staff that care about you."
