What a beautiful and faith-filled week! We began with joyful celebration at our all-school Mardi Gras parade, where students proudly showcased their creativity and excitement as we prepared to enter the Lenten season. The next day, our Ash Wednesday service filled the church. It's wonderful sight to see our parish community gathered together as we began this sacred journey of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Our 8th graders then led the way by kicking off the Stations of the Cross, setting a beautiful example of leadership and faith for our younger students.
