MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

La Iglesia termina el Año Litúrgico con la solemnidad de Jesucristo, Rey del Universo, para enseguida dar la bienvenida al Adviento. La Palabra de Dios nos recuerda que Cristo "de nuevo vendrá con gloria para juzgar a vivos y muertos, y su reino no tendrá fin" (Credo niceno-constantinopolitano).
Y, al orar, le decimos: "Padre nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre; venga a nosotros tu Reino...".
Aclamar a Jesús como rey, juez y pastor implica aceptar su cuidado amoroso en nuestras vidas y trabajar en su Reino, buscando siempre la paz y la justicia. Esto, tan sencillo y comprometedor, debe ser la meta de todo cristiano.
Demos gracias a Dios por su compasión hacia nosotros, por tener un corazón amoroso que ama a todos sin distinción.
Él es el Pastor que guía, cuida y protege del peligro.
Pero, ¿cómo corresponder a su amor? Una de tantas formas es cumplir sus mandamientos, porque son el camino para encontrar la felicidad terrena y preparan para la eterna.
También, dando de comer al que tiene hambre, vistiendo al necesitado, visitando al enfermo, tendiendo la mano al inmigrantey a las personas privadas de su libertad. Eso es lo que concretamente pide Jesús a sus discípulos y a nosotros ahora. Enseguida explica la forma de cómo será el juicio final y la manera de ser juzgados: "Cuando el Hijo del Hombre venga en su gloria, rodeado de todos sus ángeles, se sentará en el trono de gloria, que es suyo" (Mateo 25:31).
Y agrega que todos seremos llamados a su presencia.
¡Viva Cristo Rey!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

I remember middle school baseball tryouts. A friend of mine, Robert, was trying to make the team to please his father, but his heart wasn't in it. He was lackadaisical and unenergetic. When the final cut-list was announced and his name wasn't on it, he was relieved. He realized the coach was not insulting him but essentially telling him, "Bobby, this only works if you actually want to play ball." I was saddened he'd miss out on the fun, but I knew it was best. Putting Robert onto the team would not have been kindness. It would have made him miserable.
Jesus speaks to us today about his identity as our King and Judge. He separates those who inherit the kingdom from those who do not. The King explains, "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40). His judgment hinges on willingness to participate in love.
Heaven is not a prize imposed at the end of life. It is a life freely chosen and engaged. Hell is not a destination prepared for human beings, but a terrible and sad acknowledgment of an opting out which God never intends for us.
Jesus' role as judge proclaims to us: "Heaven only works if you actually want to love." How do we know if we want it? How we serve the hungry, the sick, the imprisoned, and the forgotten. These acts of mercy are not arbitrary tests. They are the very shape of divine life. There is no better game to play than this. We ought to begin playing it right now. The King will come to judge us.

Celebrating Our Cardinal Athletes!

What a season for our St. Peter the Apostle Catholic School athletes! Our boys flag football team faced a challenging season, but through it all they came together, strengthened their friendships, and built lasting bonds through their shared love of the game. Our girls volleyball teams also had an incredible season, with both JV and Varsity advancing to the final round of playoffs! Congratulations to all our athletes! We are so proud of the dedication, sportsmanship, and teamwork you have put forth this season.

A special thank you to our dedicated coaches for sharing their time, passion, and guidance with our students. Your influence goes far beyond the game, helping shape not only strong athletes but also faithful disciples and young leaders rooted in Christ.

We are truly blessed to offer these athletic opportunities to our young Catholic students, helping them grow both on and off the court and field. As our athletic program continues to grow, we invite our parish community to help us create even more opportunities for our future Cardinal athletes. If you are interested in supporting or coaching our growing athletics program, please contact the school office. Your support makes a difference!
